No attachments were sent for review. Not sure what attachment you are referring to, although some times there are text attachments that merely duplicate the text from the email? No clue! Tomorrow when you log on the Web site, you should see the presentation on the screen and we can discuss....thanks!

David,

Thanks for the information about how to register for the Webinar. I'm all set. I'm going to pass this on to Debbie to see if she is available to join us.

I am not able to open the attachments you sent with the exception of the logo which I like very much. Do I need to review those before tomorrow?

Thanks for your work in setting this up.

Carol
